NATIONALS FAIL TO GET RESULTS IN EMERGENCIES

Team Incapable of Consistent Winning-Hope for Future.

By THOMAS S. RICE.

If ever there was a man who had a thance to break into the limelight and didn't it was George Nill yesterday afterneon in the eighth inning of the ten-inning game in which Detroit beat Washington 5 to 4.
With Washington one run behind, three men on bases, and nobody out it looked like a dead moral certainty that a tally would eventuate. Instead, after spoiling several good ones by foul-ing, George bit miserably at a swift and retired. Perrine hit into double play, and it was all over.

was one of those games where Washington gets beat because in the long run the team can't quite reach. With a flying start and the other fellows going bad, Washington will do mighty deeds, as it did against Chicago and in the first game with Detroit, bu when it comes to garnering the close contests the lack of class of the team as an organization tells. The black won't turn up all the time. Occasionally the red is bound to win, and just so. cocasionally Washington will get a break in the luck like the day Blankenshiphoisted the two-bagger to left in the ninth and beat the Athletics when two were before the summer, and make Washing-But these are exceptions at the ton always a hard team to beat.

Detroit, while Washington made not errors and Detroit none. It might be thought this discrepancy in errors more than balanced the difference in safe swats and accounted for Detroit winning. As a matter of fact, not a one of the five Washington misplays figured in the irun-getting, nor did any of the errors come in the same inping with any of the tallies. If Washington had played an errorless game the outcome would have been exactly the same.

Delehanty was the principal character of this peculiar drama of the diamond. He made three errors. Two of them were bungles of chances to retire men at first, but neither of these men got.

Deteroit, while Washington had played and the place of the coaching is rather ludicrous, and gives much innotent in the bleacherites, but neither of these men got.

were bungles of chances to retire men at first, but neither of these men got beyond second. His third raw crack was the dropping of an easy pop foul off Coughlin in the fifth inning, but a moment later he caught Coughlin's lined drive and put him out anyhow.

Delehanty's record at bat was as erratic as that in the field. He sacrificed, singled, fanned, made a double that brought in two runs, and tied the score in the ninth inning, when two were out, and once was refired pitcher to first. The lucky star which sometimes shines on new players was over him at every stage, and, while he accomplished many desirable results, his work was so much on the in-and-out order that it was difficult to get a line on his real ability. He is likely to be either very good or very bad, and both in the same afternoon.

That the Washington players are doing their best is evident from the way in which they are working the bunt and stealing bases. Also, the use of these methods of advancing gives the fans an idea of the sprinting possibilities of the team, Ganley, Jones, Perrine, Altizer, and Delehanty Schmidt, c. Silvers, p...

GEORGETOWN'S HOPE | Cross Signs UPON CONDITION

Coach Russell Keeping Men on Edge-Navy Too Busy.

Too Busy.

Cross would not state his salary, but it is understood to be an unusually attractive offer for a minor league. The race in the Southern is one of the closest in the history of the league, and everybody has a show to better his position. New Orleans is third with bright prospects of reaching the top with a little strengthening, and Cross is understood to be an unusually attractive offer for a minor league. The race in the Southern is one of the closest in the history of the league, and everybody has a show to better his position. New Orleans is third with bright prospects of reaching the top with a little strengthening, and Cross along.

Cross declares he never felt better in list life, and in new surroundings, with plenty of warm weather, the "Grand Old Man of Baseoall" should make fans all around the Southern circuit take his lads show up well in a race in which he thought the outcome would be different than was expected.

. The Georgetown men showed up well day, shoving their boat along with a good, hard stroke and slow recovery. Chapman, the lightest man in the boat who is rowing bow, has made a grea impression here. He is the smallest man in any of the varsity boats and is one of the heftiest oars upon the river. Outside of Captain Rice, No. 7, Chapman is the strongest oar in the Georgetown eight.

Navy Works Too Hard.

Navy came down over the course again today in a fast row, and, like Georgetown, Coach Glendon, of Annapolis, has produced an eight rowing one of the highest strokes upon the river. His men are by all odds the strongest set in any boat here, but whether they can maintain the high pace they set in a four-mile race or whether the hard work Glendon is making them do here, which is contrary to the precedent established by the other coaches, will not in either case make them fall in the big race, is a question agitating the minds of all of the rowing experts.

Trinity's victory over St. Martin's yesterday placed it in first position in the Marquette League. Score, 9 to 2.

Buscher and Hilleary both pitched good ball, but the latter was accorded rank support at critical stages of the affray.

G. Chism, who does not lay any claim to being a catcher, was sent in to receive Hilleary's delivery and his poor base throwing was responsible for many of Trinity's runs.

Mess, for the lossers, played best. He accepted six chances at third, and on two of them caught men between second and third on fake throws to first. in a fast row, and, like Georgeminds of all of the rowing experts. Today the Navy has by far the best rew at Poughkeepsie, and could win he race were it to be rowed now. Many predict that the strenuous preparation, which seems unnecessary because the oarsmen are already fit, will send them backward, while the other crews are coming along rapidly in order to be in top shape on June 26.

The other crews were all on the rive definition of an amateur as dishonest this morning, taking advantage of the warmest day they have yet had. Cornell made several shifts in her first "The real object of this measure is boat yesterday, which proves that "The real object of this measure is simply to allow the smaller professional nines, recruited among men who have other means of livelihood, to indulge in mercenary enterprises on Sunday afternoons. In fact, it appears to me to amount to nothing more or less than a money-making scheme, pure and simple.

"I understand that at present baseball can be played on Sunday afternoon, provided that no admission fee is collected and that the peace of the community is not disturbed. The purpose of this proposed bill, therefore, can only be to legalize the collection of gate money, for otherwise it would be unnecessary."

boat yesterday, which proves that Courtney is worried over the outlook. Many aquatic experts state that the Cornell eight will not be placed higher than third, and expect both Syracuse has rapidly grown in favor the last few days, and it is the general belief that this crew has been greatly underrated. It is the most finished on the river, barring Cornell. This year the general average of good crews is same class as Cornell or Pennsylvania of last season.

and poisons which are in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure, contaminated state the place will never heal. The application of salves, washes, powders, etc., may cause the spot to scab over, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, gradually growing worse and slowly affecting the entire health of the sufferer. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of sickness breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of the eliminative members to remove the refuse and waste matter of the body, the excessive use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later is manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Persons with inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. The taint may lie dormant during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed and the natural energies begin to grow weaker, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin S. S. S. and remove the cause, and then the sore must heal. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free.

GRIFFITH STILL AFTER FIRST-CLASS TWIRLER

WASHINGTON. Pa., June 18.—Wallace Shultz, the star twirler of Mercersburg Academy, playing in Washington yesterday with the Pittsburg Collegians, received a telegram from Clark Griffith, manager of the New York Americans, asking him to name his terms for an engagement with the Highlanders. Shultz has also received offers from both major league clubs in Boston and the Athletics. He refused to enter into negotiations with Griffith, as he expects to enter the University of Pennsylvania, next year and play amateur ball.
